

The graph displays the number of publications over time from 2000 to 2006. The x-axis represents the year, and the y-axis represents the number of publications. Two data series are plotted: 'Number of publications' (purple line with circles) and 'Number of publications' (pink line with triangles). The purple line shows a significant peak in 2003, while the pink line remains near zero throughout the period.

Year	Number of publications (Purple)	Number of publications (Pink)
2000	10	0.5
2001	4	0.5
2002	3	0.5
2003	9	0.5
2004	7	0.5
